PROFILE

Social media manager who builds organic audiences from the ground up. Runs the full workflow independently, from research and strategy to publishing, conversation and reporting. Combines practical programming knowledge with a background in leadership and working under pressure.

SELECTED RESULTS

- Lingo.dev (X): Grew the account from zero to 10.8K followers and 49M+ impressions in 10 months, all organic.
- Personal X account: Built an audience of 18.4K+ followers and an estimated 195-200M lifetime impressions.
- Threads: Generated 2M views and grew the company profile to 1.7K followers in about three months.
- Facebook communities: Generated 8M+ impressions in two months posting niche content in relevant groups.

EXPERIENCE

LINGO.DEV | Social Media Manager May 2025 to March 2026

- Owned organic social content and growth on X, from ideas and publishing to daily community engagement.
- Created memes and conversational posts that made a developer-tools brand feel relatable.
- Built community relationships, answered product questions, flagged issues and promoted events.
- Ran content experiments on Threads, Facebook groups, Instagram, TikTok and YouTube.

INDEPENDENT CREATOR | Personal X account 2018 to Present

- Built an audience through original memes, humour and consistent community participation.
- Test formats against performance data to find what drives reach, engagement and follower growth.

EARLIER CAREER

- Police Service (just under 13 years, resigned as Sergeant): Uniform policing, crime intelligence and shift command. Analysed crime trends, profiled suspects and briefed senior leadership. As shift commander, supervised about eight officers and trained and assessed them.
- Private Security (about 8 years): Armed response officer; customer communication and relationship-building.
- Business: Takeaway co-owner; construction subcontractor managing eight; appliance sales at Hyperama.
